DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO DISMISS PURSUANT TO FEDERAL RULE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 12(b)(6)

NOW COMES Defendant Bexar County, Texas and Jacquelyn F. Callanen, in her official capacity as the Bexar County Elections Administrator, to file this Motion to Dismiss for failure to state a claim for which relief can granted.

Defendants show the Court as follows:

A. BACKGROUD

- Plaintiffs, who are blind or visually impaired, bring suit to require Bexar
   County to provide to them electronic ballets to vote.
- 2. However, Plaintiffs provide no authority for this request other than the Americans with Disabilities Act.

B. STANDARDS

3. The sufficiency of a pleading to state a claim upon which relief can be granted under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6) is evaluated under the two-step process outlined by the Supreme Court in Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544 (2007), and Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662 (2009). First, the Court must identify the Complaint's factual allegations, which are assumed to be true, and distinguish them from any statements of legal conclusion, which are not entitled to the assumption of truth. Iqbal, 556 U.S. at 678, 680-81. Second, the Court must assess whether the assumed-as-true factual allegations set forth a plausible claim to relief. This is "a context-specific task that requires the reviewing court to draw on its judicial experience and common sense" to determine whether "the wellpleaded facts . . . permit the court to infer more than the mere possibility of misconduct[.]" Igbal, 556 U.S. at 679. Ultimately, the claim is subject to dismissal if it lacks "factual content that allows the court to draw the reasonable inference that the defendant is liable for the misconduct alleged." Iqbal, 556 U.S. at 678.

MOTION TO DISMISS

A. Electronic Voting

- 4. Plaintiffs pray that this Court require Defendants to remedy the mail-in voting system by implementing an accessible electronic vote-by-mail for Plaintiffs and those similarly situated for all future elections. However, there is no legal authority under Texas Election law for Defendants to mail ballots by electronic means to the Plaintiffs.
- 5. Chapter 84 (Application for Ballot by Mail) and Chapter 86 (Conduct of Voting by Mail) of the Texas Election Code addresses the issues on mail in ballots.
  There is no reference to sending ballots electronically in these chapters.
- 6. The section that discusses the sole authority in Texas to send ballots electronically is subchapter C of chapter 101 of the Texas Election Code. These are requirements that come from federal law and only apply to an applicant who applies to vote with a Federal Postcard Application (FPCA). The only persons who are eligible to vote via an FPCA are person who are active military and "overseas" (which is defined as anywhere not the United States of America).
- 7. Plaintiffs are not eligible to vote by a ballot sent electronically.

B. ADA ACCOMODATION

- 8. Plaintiffs acknowledge that accommodations have been made for their voting, in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas. See Tex. Election Code §61.012<sup>1</sup>. There is nothing in their prayer that indicates that these requirements have not been met.
- 9. Instead, Plaintiffs do not like the practical and effective accommodation made by law but instead seek a different accommodation. The accommodation they request would require the Defendants to ignore the elections laws of Texas and place Plaintiff's vote in jeopardy.
- 10. This Court can take judicial notice of the multiple lawsuits currently pending in the Federal Courts involving the interpretation of the Texas Election laws.

  There can be little doubt that any change from the current laws and any change not specifically provided for in the Texas election law will be contested. Such a contest will place the Plaintiff's vote in jeopardy.

(a) Except as provided by Section 61.013, each polling place must provide at least one voting station that: (1) complies with:

(C) the requirements for accessibility under 42 U.S.C. Section 15481(a)(3) and its subsequent amendments; and

11. Requiring the Bexar County Defendants to accommodate the Plaintiffs by ignoring the election laws of the State of Texas is not a reasonable accommodation.

THEREFORE, FOR THE REASONS STATED ABOVE, Bexar County, Texas and Ms. Jacquelyn F. Callanen, in her official capacity as Bexar County Elections Administrator, pray that Plaintiff's Complaint be dismissed and for such other relief to which they show themselves entitled, whether at law or equity.

Respectfully submitted, JOE D. GONZALES Criminal District Attorney Bexar County, Texas
